Stephen the Great

PARTICIPATORY STORY – CO-CREATION

Describing nature

I am an oak tree and some would say that I have grown so much in my seven hundred and fifty years.

Stephen's arrow glides through the air.

It lands near a tree.

2

Adding numbers

Stephen the Great won battles and wars, built bridges and churches, and visited villages and monasteries.

3

Imagining an end to the story

For every battle he won, Stephen built a monastery where his arrow landed.

Imagining an end to the story

Imagining an end to the story

\- -

\- -

\- -

\- -

\- -

\- -

\- -