

The Labyrinth

PARTICIPATORY STORY – CO-CREATION

Co-funded by the European Union

The STORIAS project is co-financed by the ERASMUS+ programme of the EU. Its content reflects the views of the authors, and the European Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information therein. (Project code: 2021-1-FR01-KA220-SCH-000029483).

Questions about the story

Read the text from the story and answer: Who uses wit and who uses strength in the plan against the Minotaur?

Ariadne decides to help Theseus and give him a red wire that will help him to find his way back out of the maze. Theseus defeats the Minotaur.

Four horizontal dashed lines for writing an answer.

Questions about the story

Using the same text, how would you answer these questions: What does Theseus risk in the story? What does Ariadne risk?

Ariadne decides to help Theseus and give him a red wire that will help him to find his way back out of the maze. Theseus defeats the Minotaur.

Writing an introduction

Read the text from the story and think of an introduction to the character of the Minotaur.

They are sent to feed the Minotaur, a half-man and half-bull creature. This monster had not always been evil, but he hurts people around him because...

Four horizontal dashed lines for writing an introduction.

Writing a letter

Read the text from the story & imagine you are Ariadne left alone on the island. Write a letter to Theseus, as if you were Ariadne.

The next day, Ariadne wakes up and finds that she was left alone on the island, while Theseus went back to his country with his people.

Four horizontal dashed lines provided for writing the letter.

Your new story

The STORIAS project is co-financed by the ERASMUS+ programme of the EU. Its content reflects the views of the authors, and the European Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information therein. (Project code: 2021-1-FR01-KA220-SCH-000029483).

Your new story

Your new story
